INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

THIS School will open the Second Monday in January, in the large and commodious buildings formerly occupied by Dr. Deems.

What They are Doing?

We insert the following from the New York Times of the 15th inst. So far as the Times knows, the committee said to have been sent from North Carolina in the interests of the loyal people of the State, was composed only of Messrs. Holden, Pool, Taylor, Harris and Jenkins. For the honor of the State we hope that is all. The statements below, given by the Times correspondent upon the authority of those men, will be shown to be of a piece with the statements of the Standard generally. If there are forty members of the present Legislature whose views are represented by this self-styled committee, who are they? We should like to have a list of their names. Upon no showing before the present Legislature have the Holdenites shown that number. We call upon those members who are supposed to be included in the party, to show their hands. Let the people of the State know, who are favorable to the breaking up of the present State government and the inauguration of a territorial government. It is due them. We doubt if there are twenty members of the present Legislature, who would put their names to the bill of Mr. Stevens. Would it not be well for the Legislature to memorialize Congress upon the subject, in order to test its strength in that body? The circular spoken of has been kept dark in the State, so far as we know. Where are the 40,000 men in the State represented by those so-called Unionists? There are thousands in the State, we may say all our people, were opposed to war, wanted no war, were anxious for peace at all times, but at no time were there 40,000 men in the State who were ready to dishonor the State, or that she should violate her pledges to her Southern sisters. That circular if we judge from what the Times says, misrepresents North Carolina. But read what the correspondent of the Times says:

THE NORTH CAROLINA MEMORIALISTS.

Gov. Holden, Jno. Pool, James F. Taylor and Messrs. Harris and Jenkins, of North Carolina, who have been in Washington for several days, have left the city, and are now on their way home. They were appointed a Committee to come hither in the interest of the loyal people of that State, and they represent the views of about forty of the one hundred and seventy members of the Legislature. They say that the bill prepared by them, and introduced yesterday by Representative Stevens, to remand North Carolina to a territorial condition and to provide for a convention to form a new State Government, stands a good chance of being passed, and that the leading Republican members have privately expressed themselves in its favor.—These delegates have distributed among Congressmen a circular, showing that a test of loyalty in the insurgent States is essential. Its application, they say, would effectually place the government of the southern states in he hands of the Union men, and preclude every secessionists; and no other test can do so without excluding thousands, who, at the first, were misled, but who repented and afterward periled their lives and estates in support of the Union. There need be no apprehensions that their oath would be falsely taken. The status of every man at that time was distinctly known to his neighbors.

The line was clearly drawn upon this test, and upon it hundreds were imprisoned and murdered. By the same measure let the persecuted unionists have their reward. They are now discouraged and paralized because, while the President would boldly deliver them over to degradation, incurred on account of their adherence to the Union in the dark days of treason and blood, the Congress seems to make no definite distinction between them and their late and present persecutors and enemies; but should Congress recognize and uphold them by some just and discriminating action, they would take courage and boldly and successfully work for the interests of Union. Thus would the true element of the South stand prominently forward and make secession and treason bow its head. Now traitors are bold and arrogant, while the true loyalists are mystified and silent. The peace of the country is still disturbed, and the Union still unquestionably in danger.

Death of T. J. Judkins, Esq.

We regret to announce, that this morning T. J. Judkins, Esq., one of the Commoners from Warren, departed this life at his rooms at Ray's Hotel in this city, after several days of painful illness. He was perhaps 60 years of age, and had represented the county of Warren for many years since 1831. He was a man of kind, humane and charitable feelings, and much beloved by his friends. Both Houses to-day passed complimentary resolutions and adjourned in respect to his memory.

HOWARD AMENDMENT.—It will be seen in our telegraphic news, that Mr. Howard, the author of the amendment, stated in the U. S. Senate on yesterday, that the Reconstruction committee did not understand that the Southern States should be admitted on the adoption of the Howard amendment. This is precisely what we have always said, and those papers and persons who insisted that it was designed by Congress as a sine qua non to admission, were guilty of attempting a cheat upon the Southern people.

Railroad Bills in the Senate.

The friends of Railroads in the State will be glad to see that by the action of the Senate last night, the following bills passed their third readings. All of them we believe had previously passed the House:

1. The Fayetteville or Western Railroad bill.
2. The bill in favor of the Wil. Char. & Rutherford Railroad.
3. The bill to enhance the value of the bonds of the Western N. C. Railroad.
4. The bill to amend the charter of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad.

CORRESPONDENTS.—It has been impossible for us to insert all the communications of our correspondents. We have several on hand which we may publish when we get room.

Thad. Stevens' Bill for Territorializing North Carolina.

The Washington Star of Friday, which has lately turned Radical, has the following in reference to this bill and its authors:

The bill recently introduced into the House of Representatives by Mr. Stevens for the future government of North Carolina, we learn was drawn up with the assistance of Ex-Governor Holden and other loyal gentlemen of that State now in this city. It embraces their views as well as those of Messrs. Lewis Thompson, John Pool, David M. Carter, Dr. Eugene Grissom, Tod R. Caldwell, Gen. R. M. Henry, Thomas Settle, Robert P. Dick, Gen. G. W. Logan, Alfred Dockery, Oliver H. Dockery, Calvin J. Cowles, Dr. J. T. Leach, David A. Barnes, R. P. Buxton, E. J. Warren, C. R. Thomas, James F. Taylor, D. A. Jenkins, C. L. Harris, and many other leading men, with thirty-six members of the present Legislature.

All familiar with North Carolina affairs will recognize the gentlemen named above as being among the leading men of the State. There are between thirty and forty thousand white loyalists in North Carolina who will assist promptly and heartily in the work of reorganizing their affairs on the basis of the bill on which we are commenting, and many thousands more who will not be tardy in following their example; for, if the bill becomes a law, it instantly sweeps away the influence and power of the secessionists who control the State with a rule of iron under the administration of Governor Worth.

The above will astonish many people in North Carolina, and perhaps will astonish some of those whose names are placed in the above category. Are all the persons named in the above, sympathisers with Messrs. Holden, Pool, &c., in their scheme of reducing North Carolina, "one of the old thirteen," to a Territory?—Are there thirty-six members of the present Legislature who sympathize with the "committee?" We doubt.

It is a matter of interest with those whose names are placed in the above list, that they should disavow their connection with the "committee." We see some names in that list, whose views of law and constitutional order, cannot yield their support to the "territorial" scheme. Can it be possible that Judges Barnes, Buxton and Warren are ready to give their support to a scheme of that sort? Can Mr. Dick or Gen. Dockery or Gen. Henry allow themselves to be placed in that position?

We know they are anxious for an end of the strife—that they want peace and restoration, as all our people do, but will they consent to be written down as violaters of the law and opposers of the Constitution of the United States? The laws of North Carolina positively forbid and fix the crime of treason upon those who inveigh against the government of the State.—Can a man support either the Constitution of the State or of the United States, while giving support to the Stevens-Holden territorial bill?

The Petition Circulating.

We learn, upon good authority, that some of the members of the Legislature and other citizens, who sympathize with the Holden-Stevens project of placing North Carolina, one of the old thirteen States of the Union, back as a Territory, are obtaining names to a petition to Congress to effect that object. We suggested, the other day a counter petition to be gotten up by the truly loyal men of North Carolina. We repeat the suggestion. Let the truth go along with the falsehood. Truth must triumph. Let one be prepared at once, and published in all the papers, and let the people in all the counties copy it and get signatures to be sent to the members of Congress. That body acknowledges the right of petition.

North Carolina Delegation---Corporeal Punishment in the Carolinas---The Late Order of Gen. Sickles, &c., &c.

WASHINGTON, December 17.—Gov. Worth's North Carolina delegation, including himself, Chief Justice Ruffin, ex-Governor Swain and Hon. Nat. Boyden, had interviews with the President and the Attorney General to-day regarding the subject of General Sickles' new order in the Carolinas, prohibiting corporeal punishment. The laws of North Carolina, it is well known, provide for the punishment of larceny, perjury and bigamy by public whipping, and there being no penitentiary in the State, and the law being applicable not only to men and women, but to offenders of every race and color, the delegation was instructed to come here for the purpose of influencing the authorities to rescind the order. They express themselves satisfied with the result of their interviews and hope, from the intimations that they have received that their object will soon be accomplished. Incidently, the delegation will undoubtedly do something towards counteracting the efforts of ex-Governor Holden and his friends, who were here a few days since with the original draft of the North Carolina enabling act presented to the House by Mr. Stevens, and urging its passage. DATA.

Arrest of a North Carolinian.

HEAVY FRAUD DISCOVERED.

The Baltimore Commercial of yesterday has the following:

About ten days ago a very genteel looking man arrived in this city from North Carolina, and had several business transactions with prominent merchants here, giving the name of James Harris, and claiming to be of the firm of Harris & Young, of Tarboro, N. C. He purchased a number of bills of assorted goods of various kinds from Messrs. Charles Beebe & Co., on Lombard street, Griffith & Son, on Charles street, and several other firms, amounting to over $8,000, the parties here having been advised by telegraph to credit "Mr. Harris" to any amount. The goods were shipped, but upon attempting to collect, the discovery was made that there was no such firm as Harris & Young, nor had Mr. Harris ever been in Baltimore. The case was given into the hands of Messrs. Smith, Pearson & West, Independent detectives, and Mr. Pearson having discovered who the imposter was, armed himself with a requisition from Governor Swann, and proceeded to Tarboro, N. C., but upon his arrival found that the accused had sold out all he had purchased and had left. Mr. Pearson, dicovered a trace, however, and pursued him to Henderson, N. C., where he succeeded in capturing him, and brought him to this city on Wednesday last. The accused, who gave the name of H. F. Young, underwent a preliminary examination, and was committed to await the action of the grand jury. Mr. Pearson, (who by the way, is a most efficient officer,) deserves great credit for the shrewd manner in which he worked the case to a successful issue.

The bill to amend the charter of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad came up on its third reading and passed, and the Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 10½ o'clock.

A message was received from the House transmitting resolutions relative to the death of Mr. T. J. Judkins, which being read, Mr. Thornton said;

Mr. Speaker:—The message just read, informing the Senate of the death of my friend and colleague Thos. I. Judkins, has not taken me by surprise—has not come to me unexpectedly. I was fully prepared for the sad announcement. Mr. Judkins was confined to his room about fifteen days. During his confinement I visited him every day, and for the last seven or eight days, I felt very certain that his dissolution was rapidly approaching. Thirty years ago Mr. Judkins entered the House of Commons, as one of Warren's Representatives; very often since, sir, has that honor been conferred on him. Whenever he aspired to it, his aspirations eventuated successfully. Modest, and unpretending, rarely participating in discussion, he was nevertheless a man of fine sense, indeed, sir, his was a capacious mind. Mr. Judkins, in an eminent degree, possessed that most valuable quality in the character of a legislator, I mean, sir, firmness. He met his duty faithfully and firmly, he did not permit himself to lean aside, either to the right or to the left, to avoid any responsibility he was required to encounter.

It was my good fortune, Mr. Speaker, to know Mr. Judkins intimately, and I can truly say that I never knew a kinder heart. Liberal and generous to a fault, no man possessed more of the spirit of accommodation, no man more alive to that purest of emotions, the sensibility that is aroused into action at the call of friendship.—And, Sir, when the sad intelligence reaches Warren County that T. J. Judkins is no more, the hearts of her whole people will be filled with grief and sorrow.

Mr. Judkins was born in Warren, lived in Warren until he had entered on his 66th year, and, Sir, he lived, and he died without an enemy.

Mr. Thornton was followed by Messrs. Wiggins and Hall, in appropriate eulogies, and Mr. Hall moved the adjournment until to-morrow 10½ o'clock.

(We are compelled to defer the remarks of Messrs. Wiggins and Hall until to-morrow.)

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

THURSDAY, Dec. 20, 1866.

The House was called to order at 10½ o'clock.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Sundry reports from standing committees, were read, which will be noticed in detail when they come up for action.

Mr. Granberry introduced a resolution instructing the Judiciary committee to inquire as to the expediency of reporting a bill to enable Executors, Administrators and Guardians to compromise the debts contracted prior to May 1st 1866, owing to and from the estates they represent. Adopted.

Mr. Patton, a resolution requesting the Public Treasurer to report to the General Assembly, when it meets in January next, the taxable property of the State, the amount of the annual interest on the public debt, and what increase on the taxable property of the State, will meet the interest on the State Bonds. Adopted.

Mr. Waugh introduced a bill for the relief of owners of lands and houses.

On motion of Mr. Crawford of Rowan the rules were suspended, and a bill to authorize incorporated towns and cities to establish systems of Public Schools passed its 2nd and 3rd readings.

A bill to regulate assignments and to protect creditors, was taken up and discussed under a suspension of the rules, and was ultimately made the special order for to-morrow.

A bill to amend the charter of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company, and a bill to amend the act 1833, incorporating the Wilmington and Raleigh Railroad Company had their first reading in the House.

The House concurred in Senate amendments to bills to enable the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad Company to complete its road, pay its debt to the State, and extend its road to the Tennessee line," and to enable the Western Railroad to extend its road from the coal fields in Chatham to some point on the line of the N. C. Railroad.

Mr. Davis introduced the following resolutions:

WHEREAS: Thos. J. Judkins, a member of this body, from the county of Warren, died at his lodgings in this city last night, and whereas, it is due to the memory of a public servant, who for many years was honored by his countrymen with official positions, and who possessed the confidence and kind regards of his constituents and of his associates in this House, that we should give some expression to the sentiments produced by this sad event;

Therefore Resolved, That we have heard with pain the announcement of the death of Thos. J. Judkins, and that, bowing with humble reverence to this dispensation of Divine Wisdom, we deplore a loss that has cast gloom over the deliberations of this body.

Resolved, That this House tender its warmest sympathies to the bereaved widow and family of the deceased, and that a committee of three be appointed to accompany his remains to his late home in the county of Warren, and that as a mark of respect to his memory and long public services, we do now adjourn.

Mr. Davis, in presenting the resolutions, paid an eloquent tribute to the memory of the deceased, adverting to the many positions of trust and honor he had filled, and the faithfulness with which he had discharged the duties devolved upon him.

[Mr. Davis stated that he introduced the resolutions, because Mr. Turnbull, the colleague of Mr. Judkins, was absent, being worn out with watching at the bedside of the deceased.]

Mr. Waugh, said:

I rise, Mr. Speaker, to second the motion of the gentleman from Franklin, and, while up, I will add a remark, in addition to what has been so eloquently said by that gentleman. The deceased was, I believe, a native of Warren, was Sheriff of that county for eight years, and has been a member of the Legislature, as stated by the gentleman from Franklin, repeatedly since 1831. He was never defeated in an election—enjoyed the confidence of the people of Warren, and has been always attentive to the interests of his constituents—a man of kind and generous feelings, and much beloved by his friends. I am the only member of this House who was with him here in 1833 and 1834. Alas! how uncertain is life. Only a few days ago he was with us, in high hopes of returning to his home, his family and friends. He now sleeps that sleep which knows no awaking. Let us be admonished by this sad event, of the uncertainty of our own lives, and let us strive to be ready for the summons.

Mr. Waugh was followed by Messrs. Holderby and Horton, of Watauga, in very appropriate eulogies, and the House adjourned till tomorrow at 10½ o'clock. (The remarks of the two latter gentlemen, we are compelled to defer till to morrow.)

(Mr. Kendall voted, on yesterday, for the bill to exempt certain personal property from sale under execution, and to provide a homestead. The omission of his name was a mistake of the printer.)

The Legislature of Georgia has repealed all laws denying foreigners the privilege of owning real estate.

THE COLLINS LANDS FOR SALE.—We call attention to the sale of Lands offered by Mrs. Mary Collins, Executrix of the late Josiah Collins, of Washington county. The sales at each place take place on the 12th day of January next.

The friends of the cause of Temperance are invited to attend a meeting to be held this evening (Friday) at the Methodist school room at 7 o'clock. Ministers of the Gospel and all friendly to the cause of Temperance are respectfully invited to attend.

JUDGE FOWLE.—We stated, the other day, that Judge Fowle was holding a special term of the Superior Court in this city the present week. A number of criminal cases are before the Court. A notification of Gen. Sickles' order was duly served upon him by the military authorities, and for peace sake, he suspended the execution of the law until he could hear from Washington.

Last night he received a dispatch from Washington announcing the decision of the President, and at an early hour this morning he was on the bench, and ordered the execution of the sentence of whipping in one or two cases.

Col. Bomford having received no order from his superior, countermanding the order, forbade the execution of the sentence, until he was duly notified by his superior, and the Judge ordered the convicted man to prison.

REMARKS OF

MR. COVINGTON, OF UNION,

In the Senate, Tuesday night the 18th, on the Bill Proposing to Complete the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Rail Road, &c.

Mr. Speaker. Upon the subject of Railroads, this is the one above all others that is the object of my affections, the idol of my heart, and none, sir, in my opinion, more deserves the fostering care, the support and aid of the Legislature of North Carolina than this road. It certainly is a State measure, as much if not more than any other, and why? Because, sir, from its location, it will operate as a mighty receiver and conductor of a vast portion of the agricultural products and mineral wealth of our State, and afford convenient, speedy and direct transportation to a seaport within our own borders, to a prosperous and growing city in our own beloved State. Without this road, sir, that fertile region on the great Pee Dee river—the cotton of Anson, of Union and Mecklenburg, together with the rich and various productions of the Catawba and those beyond, and to the mountains, and in the mountains, will continue to flow to other States. But, sir, let this road be built, and it will make Wilmington to this State, what Charleston is to South Carolina. It will be to North Carolina what Richmond and Norfolk are to Virginia, and Baltimore to Maryland. Yes, sir, Wilmington would then rival successfully with any Southern city, if she did not become the Queen of the South; but, Mr. Speaker, that is not all this road would do; it would diffuse new life and spirit into a vast portion of the honest and industrious citizens of the State, who heretofore have been neglected and unprovided for in all the enterprising schemes of the State; who are inconvenient to market, remote from transportation, and who, many of them, never yet have heard the sound of a steam engine—virtuous, industrious, law abiding people, who are willing, by their industry and patriotism, to aid in elevating their native and beloved State to a degree of prominence and prosperity equal to any of her sister Southern States. Yes, sir, those fields along which the proposed road will run, now wasted and desolated by war, and soon to be forsaken without the road, will become enriched, lands will improve in value, productions increase, and much of that which is now a waste howling wilderness will bloom and blossom as a rose. Capital will seek investment there, and immigration flow to us. And, Mr. Speaker, mark what I say, I am confident it is so. Complete this road, and produce in no inconsiderable quantity will flow from South Carolina to it; but without it, as heretofore, our produce will continue to a great extent to flow to South Carolina.

This bill does not ask a dollar from the State, it only proposes to invite capitalists to lay hold of it, to make that which is now unremunerative and unprofitable to the State, productive and safe. The estimate upon the value of this road, when completed to the mountains, when in connection with the great Western extension, is some eight millions of dollars, running through an extent of country of some two hundred and seventy five miles, and cutting off a vast drain of agricultural and mineral wealth of our State, and giving to it, a convenient and direct flow to a seaport of our own; and with something over three millions of dollars the company propose to complete this magnificent enterprise, this great State work, and to pay their present indebtedness of two millions to the State; and how do they propose to do it? Not by asking the State to subscribe. Not by calling on our impoverished Treasury for a donation. But Sir by opening the door for capitalists to lay hold of it and do it. For the State to release its first mortgage, and give to Capitalists who will furnish the money and complete it a first mortgage on the property of the Road, and the State hold a second mortgage—thus ensuring the road, prospering the people, give a successful and rapid start from its present impoverished, if not bankrupt condition, to prosperity, happiness and wealth. Yes Sir they propose to make that debt which is now a slow debt, if not a bad one, (the debt of two millions against the road,) they propose to make it a good debt; and it strikes my mind there can be nothing more plain, if the road is completed, and put in operation, it will be one of the best paying roads in the State. So that the State, the counties and individuals, and all concerned, will have more indemnity and security for future remuneration and profit, then to let it remain in its present dormant and unproductive state.

And in conclusion Mr. Speaker allow me to say, the surest plan to redeem the credit of North Carolina, to pay its debts, and to enable the people to pay their debts, to prevent immigration, and invite capital and labor here, is by a vigorous, yet prudent system, of internal improvement.

A PROPOSITION to hold a convention of the Governors of the Southern States to consider the political situation, and determine what course should be pursued in order to meet the legal demands of Congress and the radical party, is now under consideration by prominent Southerners who are and have been in correspondence with the Governors above named.

The unconditional Union men of Louisiana have nominated for Governor Mr. Roudinez, the colored editor of the New Orleans Tribune.

Our Thursday Morning Dispatches.

GOOD NEWS FROM OUR COMMISSIONERS!

North Carolina Sustained by the Government!

President Decides Against the Sickles Order and also Against the Course of the Freedmen's Bureau in Regard to Apprentices.

[Dispatch from U. S. and European Press Association.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.

The North Carolina Commissioners had a long interview with the President, who communicated his decision both regarding General Sickles' order and the interference of the officials of the Freedmen's Bureau in annulling the indentures of colored children.

The President decided that the officers were in error in both cases.

Mr. Stanton, Secretary of War, has ordered Gen. Sickles to rescind his order prohibiting judicial punishments.

Gen. Howard has also issued orders instructing his subordinates to cease interference with the laws of North Carolina, where they bear equally upon whites and blacks.

Gov. Worth, armed with these documents, leaves for home to-night.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.

Charles O'Conner is here looking after the interests of Mr. Davis. He had a consultation with Judge Black to-day regarding the case.

The appropriation to pay the pardon clerk has been stricken out.

In the Senate Mr. Cattell presented a petition from the New Jersey Silk Manufacturers to increase the tariff. Referred to the Finance Committee.

The Judiciary Committee reported the House bill fixing the time of meeting of Congress.

Mr. Fessenden presented a petition from Railroad men asking a reduction of tariff on iron and steel.

Mr. Ross introduced a joint resolution relative to the government of the States lately in rebellion. Tabled.

The Committee on Foreign Relations were instructed to enquire into the expediency of prohibiting the importation of Chinese.

The Nebraska bill was taken up. In the argument Mr. Howard took ground that the Committee on Reconstruction did not understand that the States should be admitted on the adoption of the Constitutional amendment.

In the House, Mr. Upson introduced a bill increasing pension of Revolutionary soldiers.

Mr. Maynard corrected a statement made by him on Monday, relative to a demand made by the Governor of North Carolina on the Governor of Tennessee, for the person of Captain Nelson, indicted in the former State for murder, arising out of the performance of the military duties under Stoneman. The present acting Governor of North Carolina, Worth, has since assured him that he has made no such demand on the Governor of Tennessee. It was possible that he (Mr. Maynard) might have been mistaken; but he had certainly understood the facts to be as he originally stated them.

The committee on Ways and Means were instructed to inquire into the expediency of amending the tax law so as to dispense with tax on gross receipts.

Mr. Wentworth introduced a resolution calling for information possessed by the President regarding George St. Leger Grenfell, charged with complicity in the attempt to release the Camp Douglas prisoners.

Mr. Julian introduced a resolution, which was agreed to, instructing the Public Lands committee to inquire into the expediency of amending the homestead bill so as to require applicants to make oath that they had given no aid or comfort to the Confederacy.

Virginia Matters.

RICHMOND, Dec. 19.

Judge Meredith of the Circuit Court of Richmond, issued a writ of habeas corpus, to-day for Dr. James L. Watson, (charged with killing a freedman.) Gen. Schofield declined to produce Watson, assigning his reasons in writing to the effect that the act of Congress of July 16th 1866, requires the commissioners of the Freedmen's Bureau to exercise military jurisdiction over all cases involving the right to equal benefit of the laws effecting personal security to all citizens, without respect to race or color.

This act having been published to the army, by the President, through the Secretary of War. Gen. Scofield says that it is his duty, as an officer of the United States army and commissioner of the Bureau, to decline a compliance with the writ of the Honorable Court.

Rail Road Accident.

The Express train from Irontown to Oil City was thrown from the track by a broken rail.—The smoking car was thrown over the embankment, sixty-five feet, into the river, but the ice supported it. (Doubtful.)

Democratic Convention Called in Connecticutt.

NEW HAVEN, Dec. 19.

The Democratic State committee has issued a call for a State Convention at New Haven, on the 8th of January, for the purpose of considering the revolutionary acts of the present Radical Congress.

They say that this Committee will also determine upon the propriety of making nominations for State officers, and of recommending to the people of the thirty-six States the necessity for a National Convention to adopt such measures as will thwart the schemes of the traitors who are endeavoring to subvert the Constitution and government of our fathers.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"Dr. Gardner's treatment of the eye and ear is wonderful."—Richmond Enquirer.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctor and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following;

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1863. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Gerrick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonials.

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PESCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

SALE OF VALUABLE LAND In Warren County, N. C.

ON TUESDAY, THE 2ND DAY OF JANUARY, 1867, the Subscriber, as Executor of the last will and testament of Samuel T Alston, deceased, by virtue of the power conferred on him by his Testator, will offer for sale at ARCOLA, in said County, the following Tracts of Land, to-wit: One tract containing about 425 acres, adjoining the HOUSE tract on the East side, and that of Judge Asa Biggs on the North, which tract has on it a small branch-mill, and some improvements, to wit: A half dozen first class negro Cabins, Corn Cribs, &c., and is in fine condition for a crop next year, for eight or ten hands.

This tract has also some improvements in the way of Negro Cabins, Corn Cribs, &c., and is in fine condition for a crop next year, for eight or ten hands. One other tract adjacent to the Grove Hill and Arcola road, adjoining the last mentioned tract on the Northeast, and containing about 800 acres. This tract has no improvements and no cleared land, but is in original growth, well timbered and watered, and is one of the best tracts in Warren County.

One tract known as "Melton's Creek" tract, adjoining the lands of Gen. Samuel A. Williams and Dr. Mark P. Perry, containing, by estimation, 585 acres, about 100 of which is fine low grounds on Melton's Creek. This tract contains 82 acres by estimation, and is well suited to the growth of Cotton, Tobacco, Wheat and Corn.
